SEX OFFENSES

Sex offenses are of special concern to the campus community. The victim of a sex offense typically desires confidentiality and anonymity. As a result he/she will often seek a reporting source other than law enforcement such as a designated Campus Security Authority. Because the sex offense may continue to pose a threat to the community, the threat potential needs to be evaluated and the campus community alerted/warned as necessary. In this regard the following information is requested:

Known offender (friend, classmate, acquaintance. Date,	Alcohol involved	Offender Victim
Lewis University affiliated Student Faculty Staff	Drugs involved	Offender Victim
Unknown offender (stranger)	Narcotics involved	Offender Victim
Victim was injured (describe injury)	Weapon involved Describe weapon	Yes No

HATE CRIMES/INCIDENTS

Hate crimes occur when a victim is targeted specifically because of bias/prejudice against the victim. In addition to the above
